

DAILY TOUR

A NICE COOKING LESSON IN PERUGIA

DESCRIPTION

Meet Federica Spagnoli, your cooking teacher: she will welcome you in her cozy school furnished as a nice home kitchen and provided with a pretty garden.

The principle of this school is to reproduce a "homely" school or provide cooking lessons in private houses. The aim is to warmly welcome "students" who wants to learn the fundamentals of Italian cuisine and to teach Italian recipes.

The school's owner Federica Spagnoli belongs to an historical family of entrepreneurs of the 20th century. Federica is the nephew of Luisa Spagnoli, the founder of the most important Italian chocolate factory -today known as "Perugina". Luisa Spagnoli has created the famous chocolate "Perugina kiss" becoming an instrument for thousands of couples' happiness for several years; Perugina kiss is still nowadays a symbol of love.

Enjoy your cooking lesson with Federica and learn as much as you can!

At the end of the lesson taste the dishes you've prepared in a really nice setting. Federica will also give you a book with all the recipes of the dishes you've prepared with her.

In the afternoon, enjoy a visit of Perugia.
